

Children love to play, and love to play pretend.

Whether they are in the sandpit, climbing trees, building pillow and blanket forts or playing with blocks, there are so many ways to drop in a quick little moment of learning.

The following are only a set of starters to prompt you.

- In the sandpit:

- What colour is the sand?
- What letter does that start with?
- How does it feel?

- Climbing trees:

- What colour is the tree? leaves?
- What letter does that start with?
- Can you see anything hiding in the tree? (insects, birds etc).

- Building forts:

- How many pillows have you used?
- What shape are they?
- What colours are they?

- Blocks:

- What are you building?
- What letter does that start with?
- How many blocks have you used?
